POLICY STATEMENT- POLITICAL AFFILIATION

The Community Center of Ridge Manor, henceforth referenced as CCRM, is a politically neutral organization that shall not be used for the purposes of promoting the partisan agenda of any and/or all political organizations, parties, candidates or individuals. The CCRM does not endorse any political entity.

The only political events that are allowed at the CCRM facility shall be of a non-partisan nature only, which would include presentations to the general public which all political parties/entities involved shall be allowed to attend.

Any person, entity, political party or organization that is interested in any event of a political nature is required to present a request, in writing, to the Board of Directors of the CCRM at least 90 days in advance of the planned event.

For anyone interested in requesting any event of a political nature, please provide your written request to: rmcomctr@gmail.com, attention: Board of Directors.
